12. Choose the correct answer.

He has written an astonishing blockbuster, ... ?

- A) hasn't he B) has he C) doesn't he
D) does he

Test solution: To solve this test, one should know the use of tag questions. This is a short addition to the sentence, asking for agreement or confirmation. After negative statements we use the ordinary interrogative: You didn't see him, did you? After affirmative statements we use the negative interrogative: Peter helped you, didn't he? Negative verbs in the tags are usually contracted. There is an irregular formation: I'm late, aren't I? Note that "let's" has the tag "shall": Let's go, shall we? The subject of the tag is always a pronoun. The tag of "He has written" is "hasn't he".

Correct answer: A

13. Choose the correct answer.

"I scored a great goal yesterday", said Ginger.

Ginger said she ... a great goal ...

- A) had scored/the day before
B) has scored/yesterday
C) did score/the day before
D) had been scored/the day before

Test solution: To solve this test, one should know the rule of Direct/Indirect Speech. When we turn Direct Speech into Indirect, some changes are usually necessary. Indirect speech is usually introduced by a verb in the Past Tense. Verbs in the direct speech must be changed into a corresponding past tense. Past Simple changes into Past Perfect. "Yesterday" changes into "the day before or previous day".

Correct answer: A

14. Choose the correct answer.

If he ... for London tomorrow morning he'll be there by the afternoon.

- A) leaves B) will leave C) would leave
D) leave

Test solution: To solve this test, one should know the rule of Conditionals. Conditional sentences have two parts: the if-clause and the main clause. If the verb in the main clause is in the Future Simple, the verb in the if-clause must be in the Present Tense. It doesn't matter which comes first. Note that the meaning here is present or future, but the verb in the if-clause is in a present, not a future tense. Thus, the correct answer is A) leaves.

Correct answer: A

15. Choose the correct answer.

He ... his exams if he'd learnt more.

- A) wouldn't have failed
B) hasn't failed C) doesn't fail
D) will not fail

Test solution: To solve this test, one should know the rule of Conditionals. Conditional sentences have two parts: the if-clause and the main clause. If the verb in the if-clause is in the Past Perfect Tense, the verb in the main clause is in the Future Perfect in the Past. It doesn't matter which comes first. Note that the meaning here is past, but not present or future. It is Unreal Past Conditional. Thus, the correct answer is A) wouldn't have failed.

16. From the marked areas 1, 2, 3 and 4, identify the one that is wrong.

Without (1) Jasur's help (2), I wouldn't have been (3) able to moving (4) the table.

- A) 4 B) 2 C) 3 D) 1

Test solution: To solve this test, one should have a wide range of knowledge on sentence order, subject and verb agreement, infinitive and gerund, word usage, etc. Here are given four underlined marked areas. You should identify and choose from the marked areas 1, 2, 3 and 4 which one is incorrect. There is a phrase "be able to do something". So the marked area "moving (4)" is incorrect. It should be changed to "move" without adding "-ing" at the end.

Correct answer: A

17. Choose the correct answer.

There was only one room ... so we had to share it.

- A) available B) decided
C) international D) popular

Test solution: To solve this test, one should translate it first. Translation gives you the best match for the correct answer. The word "available" means "able to be used or obtained". The other answers cannot coincide with the word "room". Thus, the correct answer is A) available.

Correct answer: A

Read the text and answer the questions according to it.

It happened on a spring day. A girl of about twelve was going home after school. When she was approaching a river, she suddenly heard cries. The girl hurried in that direction and saw two small children on a piece of ice. She immediately made up her mind, and a minute later she was down on the ice. Very quickly she reached the children. They had calmed down a little and she saw the smaller boy fall into the water. The girl immediately lay down on the ice and caught the boy by the hand. Though it was very dangerous and she was very tired, she continued lying in this position until two men saw them. They first carried them to a safe place on the bank and then took them to the nearest hospital.

Read the text and answer the questions according to it.

One day, a poor man, who had only one piece of bread to eat, was walking past a restaurant. There was a large pot of soup on the table. The poor man held his bread over the soup, so the steam from the soup would go into the bread, and gave it a good smell. Then he ate the bread.

The restaurant owner was very angry at this, and he asked the man for money, in exchange for the smell. The poor man had no money, so the restaurant owner took him to Nasreddin, who was a judge at that time. Nasreddin thought about the case for a little while. Then he took some money from his pocket. He held the coins next to the restaurant owner's ear, and shook them, so that they made a noise. "What was that?" asked the restaurant owner. "That was payment for you," answered Nasreddin. "What do you mean? That was just the sound of coins!" protested the restaurant owner. "The sound of the coins is payment for the smell of the soup," answered Nasreddin.

The sound of coins

23. According to the passage, why did the poor man hold the bread over the soup?

- A) So the steam from the soup would go into the bread.
B) So he could warm his hand because he was very cold.
C) So the restaurant owner would get angry and talk to him.
D) So Nasreddin would think about the case for a little while.

Test solution: To solve the task, one should read it carefully. In the question it is asked why the poor man held the bread over the soup. In the third sentence of the passage it is said that "the poor man held his bread over the soup, so the steam from the soup would go into the bread, and give it a good smell".

Correct answer: A

24. According to the passage, why did the restaurant owner take the poor man to Nasreddin?

- A) Because Nasreddin was a judge then.
B) So that Nasreddin could pay for the soup.
C) Because Nasreddin was the man's relative.
D) Because Nasreddin would give them a pot of soup.

Test solution: To solve the task, one should read it carefully. In the question it is asked why the restaurant owner took the poor man to Nasreddin. In the passage it is said that "the restaurant owner took him to Nasreddin, who was a judge at that time."

Correct answer: A

25. According to the passage, what did Nasreddin do with the coins?

- A) He gave them to the restaurant owner.
- B) He made a noise with them.
- C) He gave them to the poor man.
- D) He threw them to the ground.

Test solution: To solve the task, one should read it carefully. In the question it is asked what Nasreddin did with the coins. In the passage it is said that he “shook them, so that they made a noise.”

Correct answer: B

26. According to the passage, what was the payment for the smell of the soup?

- A) the sound of money
- B) the bag of gold
- C) the loaf of bread
- D) the pot of soup

Correct answer: A

Read the text and answer the questions according to it.

Pets are important to many people. Millions of families have dogs and cats. Some families have other kinds of pets, such as hamsters, lizards, rabbits and birds. But some animals do more than just make us laugh. We call these animals service animals and they do work that helps people who are lost or injured. Service animals also help people who have disabilities. These animals help people who can't see or hear. Rescue dogs use their sense of smell to find missing people in the woods, or find them after an earthquake. Guide dogs are special helper dogs that help blind people walk safely on busy streets and know when cars stop so they can cross streets. Some deaf or blind people are starting to use small horses as guide animals. They are very steady on their feet and can see very well in the dark. And they don't get tired very easily. Like guide dogs, mini horses can go everywhere with people to stores and restaurants, on buses and planes.

A hamster

27. What is the passage mostly about?

- A) Wild animals B) Service animals
